

Literacy

Instructions: Linked to Leopard's drum.

Recycling letters to the council

Traditional Tales- 3 Little Pigs, and The Frog and the Scorpion.

Non-fiction writing- Steve Backshall - Deadly 60.

Poetry writing linked to T.S Elliot.

History

Explorers: Columbus, Drake and Amelia Earhart

Bonfire Night

P.E

Multi-skills

Dance- our version of Stomp

Music

Charanga

Hands, feet and heart by Joanna Mangoana

Music that celebrates Africa.

Stomp- children to perform

Science

Water

Climate change

Recycling

Endangered animals

Materials

Children to compare different materials and think about the importance of recycling.

Children will experiment with different materials and record their findings- melting chocolate, bending and twisting materials

R.E

Special Things in Nature.

Special places

Essex Syllabus.

Maths

Sequences, place value, estimation, money, time, fraction and addition and subtraction.

Geography

Local study

Field studies on local recycling and litter.

What a waste!

Links to books:

www.oxfordowl.co.uk

www.roalddahl.com

Links to music I can listen to:

Learningstation.com

Stomp the musical

Places I can visit:

National History museum

Highwoods Country Park

Core Books

Steve Backshall- Deadly 60; The Leopard's Drum; Mr Stink

ART and DT

Sculpture: examining the work of Michelle Reader and Jill Townsley, using everyday materials

Making a drum (linked to the book the Leopard's drum) and use this in our musical performance of Stomp.

Sketching and rubbing of different materials.

Computing

Using beebots to write a set of instructions to program the beebot around an adventure mat that the children have made- linked to the explorers.

Children to explore and make algorithms.

Children to use purple mash and book creator to make Deadly 60 information books.