Learning in the Circus Class

The Circus children have been developing their skills of working collaboratively with a partner.

This meant that each pair had to listen to each others' ideas, follow instructions and then work together to solve the problem given to them. The children's skills are progressing well and they all enjoyed working with their partners.

Foundation Parents

An increasing number of toys are coming into school from home in the children's book bags. Could you please ensure that toys only come into school on your child's 'show and tell' day. Due to the business of the day we are unable to guarantee that toys brought on other days will not get lost or damaged.

Thank you for your support

Learning in Jumbo Class

Last week in PE the Jumbo children had the opportunity to use the climbing frames. They discussed how to use them in a safe way and then under close supervision were able to experiment with different ways of moving up, under and over the apparatus. The children were very confident and demonstrated their developing motor skills.
