

Children's Mental Health Week 2020

- Children's Mental Health Week runs from 3rd to 9th February 2020.
- It is a time for children, young people and adults to celebrate their differences.
- It is a time to know that everyone has different qualities and strengths.

The theme for Children's Mental Health Week 2020 is 'Find your Brave'. Life can sometimes be challenging and scary. Being brave does not mean that you have to cope on your own or hold things in. Instead, bravery can be about sharing worries and asking for help. It can be trying something new or pushing yourself outside your comfort zone. Being brave means finding ways to overcome challenges.

What is Mental Health?

Mental health concerns how people feel about things in their lives such as their relationships, health, work and how they feel about themselves. Mental health is important because it can affect how people deal with different situations each day.

A Place2Be

- A school-based charity called Place2Be was founded in 1994.
- The charity has gone from supporting a few schools in London to supporting 294 schools nationwide.
- The charity helps children become more confident and positive through talk, creative work and play.
- They also provide school support and training to help children develop a positive self-image.
- Place2Be launched the first Children's Mental Health Week in 2015.

Place2Be want to help let people know that children's mental health is just as important as what they learn in class. Mental health improves if people have a positive view of themselves. The aim is to help children learn how to have good self-esteem and tackle life's challenges in the future.

A Royal Patron

The Duchess of Cambridge has been a patron of Place2Be since 2013. She says that people who care for children must work together to help children be the best they can be.

Helpful Tips

These tips are suggested to help young people to improve the way they see things and improve their emotional wellbeing.

- Get outside! A little time outdoors every day is great for the whole body, including the mind.
- Talk to an adult you trust if something is worrying or upsetting you. Even if you think it isn't worth bothering someone about, it often helps to share with someone.
- Try and focus on a positive thing that happens every day, even if it is something small.

Children's Mental Health Week 2020

Children's Mental Health Week is a time for children, young people and adults to celebrate their uniqueness. It is a chance to recognise that everyone is different but that everyone has skills and strengths and that our differences should be celebrated.

In 2020, Children's Mental Health week runs from 3rd to 9th February. This time, the theme of the week is 'Finding your Brave'. The theme aims to highlight the fact that although life can sometimes be challenging, if we are brave, we can overcome these challenges. Being brave is not about trying to deal with problems on your own or holding things in. Instead, bravery is about finding positive ways to deal with things that might be difficult such as asking for help from others, trying something new or pushing yourself outside your comfort zone.

What is Mental Health?

The term mental health refers to how people feel emotionally about different aspects of their lives such as their relationships, health, work and themselves. Being aware of our mental health is important because it can affect how we deal with stress, make decisions, how we behave and how we interact with other people.

A Place2Be

A school-based charity called Place2Be was founded in 1994. Their vision is "a world where children have the opportunity to grow up with prospects rather than problems." They have gone from supporting five schools in London to working with 294 schools nationwide.

The charity builds children's resilience through talking, creative work and play, and helping them to develop the skills to cope with a wide range of issues. They also provide school support and training to help children develop a positive self-image. Place2Be launched the first Children's Mental Health Week in 2015 to help spread the word about the importance of children's mental health being considered, as well as their ability to learn.

It is known that mental health can improve if people have a positive view of themselves. This helps the development of good self-esteem which will enable people to cope with misfortunes and disappointments. It will also mean they have better relationships with people around them and improve their emotional wellbeing.

A Royal Patron

Her Royal Highness the Duchess of Cambridge has been a patron of Place2Be since 2013. She says that "We can ensure that every child is given support to help them fulfil their true potential," and that people who are involved with the education and care of young people must "work together to ensure the children in our care have the chance to become the best version of themselves."
